

The fall meeting of the Clemons Pond Association was held on Sept. 2, 1984 at Flo Whiting's camp. The meeting was called to order at 10:15 a.m. The 22 members present were Mr. & Mrs. John Fields, Ralph Morses', Charles Saurmans, Maurice Rousseaus, John Penneys, Norman Browns, Bob Hazens, Victor Zelman, Mrs. Meggison, Kevin Brown, Judy Comer, Carol Hill, Helen Tolstrup, Flo Whiting & Jo Smith.

The secretary's report was read. Jo Smith moved and Gertrude Meggison seconded the motion to accept the report. Mae Hazen read the treasurer's report in the absence of our regular treasurer. Motion was made by Bob Hazen and seconded by Flo Whiting to accept this report.

Ava Saurman reported on junk cars on the lot facing Notch Road. She said that the town clerk had told the owner to "clean up his act". Victor Zelman also said that he had talked to a selectman about this matter. He said that the town can take action about the health hazard involved.

Carol Hill suggested we write a petition to the town calling their attention to this situation. Marion Brown moved and Flo Whiting seconded the motion. It was so voted.

Judy Comer talked about making signs to put at the end of the road. Flo Whiting made a motion to see about having the signs made. Bob Hazen volunteered to donate two cedar logs for posts. Norman Brown said he would cut out the signs. Carol Hill said she would check at the Kennett High School in Conway, N.H. about the industrial arts students maybe making the signs for us. A lengthy discussion was held, and Judy said she would look into a local business perhaps doing the signs. She will be in touch with members at a future date.

Victor said he will be making a contribution to the Hiram Historical Society so that they will donate paint to do the fence around the cemetery. We will be doing the actual painting.

It was discussed to raise the dues from $5.00 to $10.00 a year. Victor Zelman moved and Charles Saurman seconded the motion to raise the dues. It was voted to do so by a 2/3 vote of members.

A discussion was held about what constitutes a family if more than one family owns the same property. It was decided that each family is entitled to two votes according to our by-laws.

Ralph Morse reported on the nomination of new officers.
Pres.-Louise Ngvak, Vice Pres.-Charles Saurman, Secretary-Mary Penney, Treasurer-Jeannette Ward.

Libby Morse moved that the secretary cast one ballot for the new officers. The motion was passed. Flo Whiting suggested we thank the outgoing officers for a job well done. They were given a hearty applause.

Jo Smith showed an aerial view of the Clemons Pond area, and said she is trying to locate the negative from Tony Materna. If anyone is interested in a picture they can contact her.

Flo moved to adjourn and Norman seconded. The meeting adjourned at 11:30 a.m.

The next meeting will be held at Charles Saurman's camp in May, 1985.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary E. Penney
Secretary
